

Creative Beans After-School Club: Teaching Content

Evening 1 4.00 – 5.30pm	Introduction to the workshop: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Give children an outline of what they will learn (character, plot, setting) and what the outcome of the workshop will be (show past examples of Creative Beans books).</li> <li>- Ice breaker games: asking children about the sort of stories they enjoy and their favourite authors.</li> </ul> Plot: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Look at a model of a plot structure:             <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Problem: the hero faces a problem.</li> <li>2. Plan: the hero comes up with a plan to overcome the problem.</li> <li>3. Action: the hero puts the plan into action – will the plan succeed?</li> <li>4. New level: the hero has changed in some way.</li> </ol> </li> <li>- Look at an extract from literature which demonstrates this plot structure.</li> <li>- Play ‘Sort the Plot’ – an interactive game which illustrates this plot structure.</li> <li>- Children plan the plot for their story using this model.</li> </ul> Character <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Play ‘Guess the Character’ game, reading out various extracts from children’s literature.</li> <li>- Identify the two elements of describing characters: personality &amp; appearance.</li> <li>- Brainstorm original phrases and words to describe characters.</li> <li>- Think about the difference between ‘showing’ and ‘telling’ the reader about the main characters.</li> <li>- Children plan one or two main characters for their story.</li> <li>- 1st person or 3rd person: discuss the differences. Read out extracts from children’s literature which illustrate the advantages of each.</li> </ul>
Evening 2 4.00 – 5.30pm	Setting: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Discuss what makes good description of setting:             <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Describing 5 senses (sounds, sights, smells, tastes, textures).</li> <li>2. Describe senses using alliteration, adjectives, similes and metaphors.</li> </ol> </li> <li>- Read out various extracts from literature that model excellent setting descriptions.</li> <li>- Play ‘Where am I?’ – a game involving describing contrasting settings.</li> <li>- Children plan one or two settings in detail for their story.</li> </ul> Recap and review: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Children recap the plans they have made for plot, character and setting. Children share ideas with each other and are encouraged to contribute thoughts to each other’s plans.</li> <li>- How to open your story: look at different styles of beginning a story, using examples from children’s literature.</li> </ul> Writing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Children begin writing up their story.</li> </ul>
Evening 4 4.00 – 5.30pm	Writing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Children finish writing up their story.</li> </ul> Editing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Go through an editing checklist (punctuation, boring words, paragraphs, tenses).</li> <li>- Practice editing skills on a couple of prepared passages.</li> <li>- Children edit their own work and also each other’s work.</li> </ul>
Evening 5 4.00 – 5.30pm	Illustration: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Using examples from professional illustrator, Lucy Panes, share teaching on what makes an excellent illustration.</li> <li>- Children use a variety of mediums to illustrate their stories.</li> </ul> Sharing stories: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Time permitting, children read out their finished stories to one another.</li> </ul>

At the end of the workshop, the children’s stories and illustrations are formatted and printed in a professional looking book.

